

THE EX-GAY SURVIVOR CONFERENCE

Undoing the Damage
Affirming our Lives Together

JUNE 29 - JULY 1, 2007

UC Irvine, California

In working with clients, many LGBT-affirming therapists and clinicians encounter the negative effects of ex-gay ministries and “reparative” therapies. The process of integrating the self eludes many survivors of the ex-gay movement who have multiple issues to address.

The Ex-Gay Survivor Conference will bring together an array of concerned allies and clinicians as well as ex-gay survivors in order to explore and discuss many types of ex-gay experiences and the damage they cause. Mental health professionals will also be given time and space to share dilemmas and effective practices with each other.
